Location

The historic town of Gillingham benefits from national railway links to London Bridge, Victoria, Waterloo and high-speed to St. Pancras International train station which is under 1 hour commute. You can also catch a train to many Kent coastal towns such as Margate in under 1 hour. The high street has a selection of convenience stores, restaurants as well as a Costa Coffee. Gillingham has its very own football club and also benefits from the Great Lines Heritage Park, University of Kent Campus, Medway Park Sports Centre and Grammar schools.

Ideally placed for Gillingham town centre with its mainline station to London and the South East coast and splendid variety of shops. Gillingham sports complex is approximately half a mile distance with its in door heated swimming pool and numerous sporting activities. The Strand is approximately half a mile distance with its out door pool and many leisure activities as well as many pleasant river side walks. The A2, M2 motorway networks are also within a short driving distance and the popular dockside retail outlets centre is also within three quarters of a mile.
