Marketing

We may use your details to tell you about products or services we think may interest you, in line with applicable laws. If you contact us through the 'contact' page of our website, make an enquiry in branch or on the phone to us, we will use the details you have supplied to us to provide you with our general property marketing by email unless you choose to opt out of these communications. If you agree to marketing, you can still stop at any time by unsubscribing from a link, your account or contacting your branch/us. We may however contact you by phone where we believe there are additional services you may be interested in. We rely on legitimate interests in contacting you but you can always let us know if you wish to never receive any communication from us using the details below.

If you buy or rent a property, or agree to let a property, we share information with First2Protect Limited so they can provide an insurance quotation. This is again based on legitimate interests, and you can ask your branch/us not to share your information for this purpose.

We may share your personal information with our financial services partner Embrace Financial Services so they can contact you to offer mortgage and protection advice. This includes when you register with us, view a property, request a valuation, progress a sale or purchase, or agree to rent a property. If you do not want us to share your information for this purpose, you can let us know at any time.

Third party websites

Our sites may link to other websites. We are not responsible for how those sites handle your information, and their own privacy notices apply.

Keeping your information secure

We use security measures designed to protect your information from unauthorised access, unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction, or damage. We also recommend you take care when sending information (e.g. avoid sending confidential information over unprotected email).

Third parties service providers who process your personal data on our behalf may be in the UK or elsewhere in the world where different privacy laws may apply which may not offer the same level of protection as UK law. We only make these arrangements or transfers where we are satisfied that adequate levels of protection are in place to protect any information held in that country and that the service provider always acts in compliance with applicable privacy laws.

Cookies

We use cookies (including analytics cookies) to understand how people use our sites and improve them. Please see our separate Cookie Policy for details and choices.

Your rights

You have rights over your personal information. In summary, you can:

- Ask for a copy of the personal data that we hold about you
- Ask us to correct inaccurate data
- Ask us to delete data – though sometimes we must keep it (e.g. legal obligations).
- Ask us to restrict how we use your information in some situations.
- Object to certain types of use, including direct marketing and some uses based on legitimate interests.

- Complain if you are unhappy with how we have handled your information. (see below)
- Withdraw consent where we rely on it for the lawful basis of processing

To exercise your rights, contact us using the details below.
